St. Paul's Fundraising Auxiliary, Love Uniting Volunteers (LUV), held its 22nd Annual Ball on September 10th 2005 at the Hyatt Regency, La Jolla. The event was themed Harvest Ball and was held in honor of the new Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of San Diego, the Rt. Rev. James R. Mathes.

The Rt. Rev. James R. Mathes and Mrs. Mathes.

The Harvest Ball theme was seen in all aspects of the decorations and food served, especially the beautiful "trees" decorating each table. The Big Band Express Orchestra entertained the attendees.

This year's gala Chairs were Nina Renda and Sharon Daley, who worked hard to put the event together. Special thanks also to the Gala Committee: Kathryn Bunch, CJ Carlo, Lanita Carroll, Joyce

In September 2005, Cheryl Wilson, CEO of St. Paul's Senior Homes & Services, received the Rotary District Family and Community Service Award from Rotary International for her years of dedication to promoting timely immunization of infants against all childhood diseases, including Polio.

A member of the Downtown San Diego Rotary Club, Cheryl Wilson has been an integral member of the Don't Wait...Vaccinate committee both at the Club and District levels.

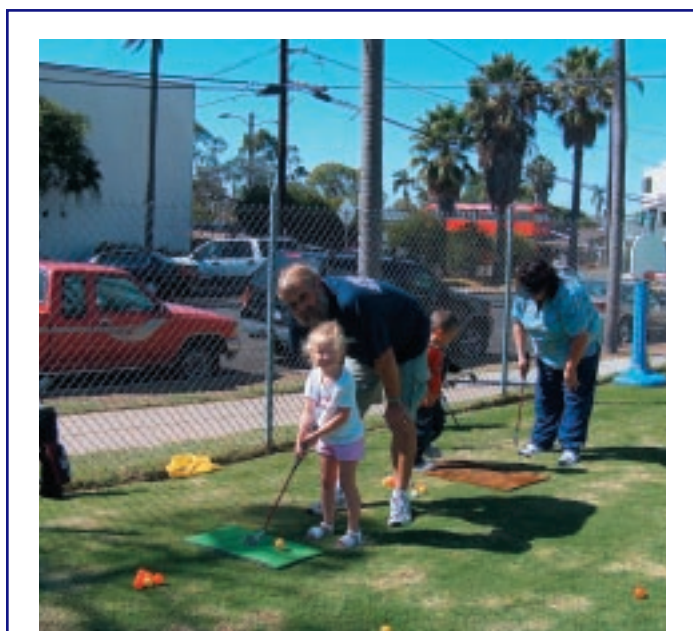

Formed in 1994, the committee has been meeting monthly at St. Paul's Senior Homes & Services, with Cheryl Wilson as hostess. The committee's efforts have raised immunization rates in children under two from 51% in 1992 to 85% today.

St. Paul's Honors Volunteers

The Staff and Board of St. Paul's Senior Homes & Services were pleased to hold a Volunteer Appreciation Day on August 6th at St. Paul's Park. Over 65 volunteers arrived for the fun event. Volunteer coordinator Todd Kaprielian, and activities coordinators April Frantz from St. Paul's Manor, Kristen Ruth from St. Paul's John A. McColl Family Health Center, and Michelle Johnson from St. Paul's Villa welcomed the opportunity to personally thank the volunteers who give so much of their time to St. Paul's.

Prosit!!! Oktoberfest

Oktoberfest revelers joined St. Paul's Retirement Homes Foundation to raise money for the Intergenerational Day Care Program while having a great time with pretzel eating contests, kazoo marches and Bavarian hat dances, just to name a few.

The Oktoberfest is an annual event, organized by the Young & Restless Committee.

This year's honorees were Kirk and Jolene Jackson. Dr. William and Barbara McColl kindly hosted the event at their beautiful La Jolla residence. The funds raised benefited the only Intergenerational Program of its type in San Diego. The Program brings together children from St. Paul's Child Day Care and seniors from the Adult Day Care to participate in an array of fun, stimulating and creative activities. This special "grandparent/grandchild" everyday interaction enhances the lives and well-being of both the children and the seniors.

VILLA RENOVATIONS

St. Paul's Villa, the assisted living facility of St. Paul's Senior Homes & Services, underwent a major renovation last year, mainly due to the generous contributions from the Anonymous Donor Foundation and numerous donors.

New nurses' station

The Villa, now in its 25th year of serving San Diego's seniors, looks better than ever, and continues to provide the highest quality medical and personal services through the reconstructed Nurses Station.

At the end of the day filled with numerous activities and events, Villa residents can relax in their renovated apartments. The apartments feature larger living spaces and bedrooms, kitchenettes and handicap accessible bathrooms.
